I'm Hassan T. Weird, an african born, seasoned in web development and user-interface designing. Using my creativity to bring ideas to life. I'm not an expert in my field but I'm trying so hard to be one. I have a proficiency in programming languages and frameworks like Html, Css, JavaScript, Bootstrap . I also have pretty vague idea on graphql and Php. I love to develop new user-intefacing features, write neat and reuseable code.
